

JESSE DAVID DINNEEN C.V.

Montreal, QC, Canada • jdinneen@gmail.com

DEGREES:

Master of Library and Information Studies (in progress)
McGill University, 2013

Master of Arts with merit, philosophy
King's College London, 2011

Bachelor of Arts magna cum laude, philosophy
University of Massachusetts Boston, 2010

High School Diploma
Oakmont Regional High School, 2004

PRESENTATIONS AND AWARDS:

Should LIS abandon the 'definition of information' problem?
Given at EGSS Conference, Montreal, March 9, 2012

Comparativist population ethics and the repugnant conclusion
Given at KCL research seminar, London, August 3, 2011

Paradoxes of phenomenology
Given at UMB Philosophy Club, Boston, March 12, 2010

Departmental book award, Distinction in Philosophy
University of Massachusetts Boston, Spring 2010

POSITIONS AND PARTICIPATION:

Research Assistant, School of Information Studies
McGill University, 2012

Member of MLISSA
McGill University, 2011-2012

Archives Intern, Campaign for Better Transport
London, UK, 2011

Secretary of Philosophy Club
University of Massachusetts Boston, Spring 2010

Interlibrary Loans Librarian, Forbush Memorial Library
Westminster, Massachusetts, 2005-2008

ACADEMIC REFERENCES:

Available upon request.

ACADEMIC SKILLS:

Background in theoretical research

Acquainted with empirical research

Fluent with \LaTeX , OpenOffice and MS equivalent, Windows, Mac, and Linux